

Here's the deal. The Democrats will give us everything we want, starting with Owen, Brown, Pryor and later Myers and Saad. We'll hold off on the "nuclear option" until you try to actually filibuster a justice, and you will pretend that you won.

Owen is really, really bad. So what if I voted for cloture and guaranteed her the job? She is really, really bad, and I want everyone to know I don't like her.

People are starting to realize that Zargawi doesn't exist and that we are the ones funding the opposition so we can get more appropriations for our backers.

Nancy, you voted for star wars. That's money that won't be going to education or health care, and star wars doesn't work. Why did you vote for star wars?

OK, let's pretend to fatally wound him or kill him off. Then people will believe he's real. We'll post it on the Islamic websites we own. Then we are heroes. Then, he can recover or we can create an even more dangerous enemy.

Star Wars is a really great movie, and you don't have to know how to read to watch it. Armageddon was a really good movie, too. So guess what I'm voting for next.
