FEMA
Thousands dead.
Who cares?

I may have been let go from last position because of incompetence, but I'm doing well with my swift response to Katrina. The people of New Orleans are lucky I'm in charge.

This hurricane has been really profitable. Halliburton gets a nice cut of the loot and Blackwater USA is getting its share for bringing in mercenaries to shoot the survivors, or rather looters, as we lovingly call them. Ha! Ha! Ha!
