

What this helmet that meets the ANSI and ASTM safety standards won't protect a kid from:

- 1) Death,
- 2) Dismemberment,
- 3) Lethal Brain injuries,
- 4) Loss of hearing,
- 5) Loss of vision,
- 6) Broken facial bones,
- 7) Disfigurement,
- 8) Facial lacerations and bruises,
- 9) Loss of teeth and hair,
- 10) Excessive loss of blood, and
- 11) Any other injury you can think of, lethal or not.

Ten safest uses for bike-riding helmets that meet government approved standards:

- 1) Fruit basket
- 2) Door stop
- 3) Paper weight
- 4) Catch
- 5) Spaghetti bowl
- 6) Drum
- 7) Colander
- 8) Muzzle for a tiger
- 9) Hiding place for small objects and creatures
- 10) Football

