

I'm an elected, indicted criminal who is resigning to become a lobbyist... This is where I vote.

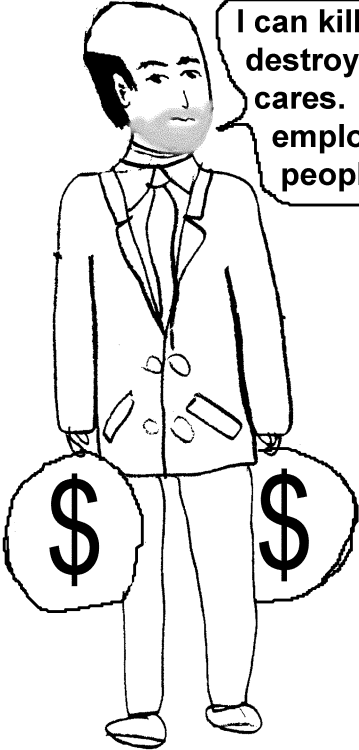

POLLING PLACE

We're American kids. This freeway is where we vote.

I can kill, loot, maim, commit acts of terrorism and destroy the lives of all my employees and nobody cares. I'm glad Americans don't have the employment rights of most French people.

CORPORATE PERSON

My leaders don't care what I think. I elected my leader and he doesn't care about me. I made my corporate boss rich and he doesn't care about me.

LIVE PERSON

What part of the word "TREASON" don't you understand?
