

Nancy, do you realize how long it will take the younger generations to pay off the $513 billion you just voted to give to war profiteers?

What do I care about the younger generation? My daughter's platform committee has declared anyone under 18 to be naturally inferior.

You know that isn't true, right?

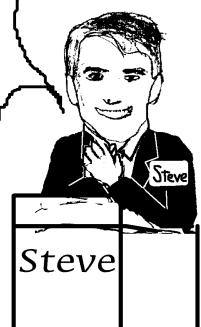

Well, somebody's got to be dumber than me.

California Democratic Governor's Debate

Steve and I want the public to know that no other candidates exist in the Democratic governor's race. The rumors about better, more courageous Democratic candidates not being allowed to debate are simply not true. The polls ask people their preference between me and Steve, and since people do not answer that question with a name other than Steve's or mine, there are no other candidates and that is that.

We've never heard of Michael Strimling or Barbara Becnel. Now, while I like kids better than Phil, we both support executing Nobel Peace Prize nominees. After all, if we execute all the peace prize nominees and potential nominees, there will be no one left to collect the prize but us.

And I have never heard of Colleen Fernald. I have checked out the names of all the war profiteers and wives of war profiteers and I am the only name on that list that is running for U.S. Senate. So vote for me. Bechtel will be grateful.

Happy Mother's Day!
